

EXT. NEW HOUS

WILLIAM PRIEST

INT.

ANN WALKER

I wonder if it should come from me.

ANNE LISTER

Why?

ANN WALKER

I think he'll be angry. He will be angry. If he thought I'd told someone else about -
(self-conscious)
what went on.

ANNE LISTER

Angry?

ANN WALKER

Embarrassed. Humiliated.

ANNE LISTER

You did absolutely the right thing to tell me ~~va~~ about what wea

g w

ANNE LISTER
No! No. No, thi

ANNE LISTER (CONT'D)

Oh, I was going to ask -

ANN WALKER

What?

ANNE LISTER

(delicately)

Could I borrow some money? Just a temporary thing, a temporary loan. I'm going to sink a coal pit

As I say, i ELI ZA PRI ESTLEY

ANNE LISTER
(she nods, and says
without self-pity -)
So then. Comme je ne suis ni l'un ni l'autre, je me sens - comme
Rousseau - une chose pire que rien.

*Being neither one thing nor the other, I feel - like Rousseau
- a t*

ANNE LISTER
- burned all the hair

ANN WALKER
(brusque, clear)
No. I'm ill. I'm not rece

INT. LIBRARY, CROW NEST. DAY 2

ANN WALKER

I'm glad you didn't say anyth

A

MR. AINSWORTH
(that terrif

ANNE LISTER
How d'you do? Mr. Ainsworth

E

MR. AINSWORTH

All right. All right. All right.
The

ANNE LISTER

Mm. Whi ch i

SAMUEL WASHINGTON

MARIAN LIS

MARY digs i t out. The bel t buckl e. She wi

ELI ZA PRI ESTLEY
Mr. Ai nsworth. M

Only I've a few jobs going

MR. AINSWORTH
Of course not. But

And next time - any irregularities

AN

For doing what we do with each other.

ANNE LISTER
Who's told you that?

ANN WALKER
Miss Parkhill.

ANNE LISTER
How does Miss Parkhill know what "we do with each other".

ANN WALKER
She does not. But people are starting to make assumptions -

ee

(

ANNE LISTER
e

h

d

h

we

ANNE LI STE

ANN WALKER

Shhh!

ANNE LISTER

Don't let them poison

MR. AINSWORTH
Thank you for yo

The two young Ladies are o

They're au

The two men have just walked past WBBLEY'

ANNE LISTER
Well then! I

A

Sorry?

ANNE LISTER

I'll st

ANN WALKER

f

MAN

Leave. Miss Walker. Alone.

He makes to lunge at her once more, but she stands her ground, and he turns and leaves.

ANNE - battered, bruised, humiliated, shocked, and with blood
S