Their eyes meet and Anna's vulnerability is evident: Louise still one of very few people allowed to see it.

LOUISE

You've been through worse; you'll be fine...

ANNA

... What about you?

Louise frowns: what about me? Anna gestures upstairs and lowers her voice:

You've only known him a year; he's a lot older than you --

I'm eighteen, Mum --

What do you mean?

But Ben remains silent.

As Rebecca searches Craig's pleading eyes, the moment is broken by the breathless arrival of an excited Jessica.

JESSICA
Can we take a picture? With Oscar in?

Craig and Rebecca force smiles and CROUCH down with Jessica, Craig pulling out his PHONE. The trio pose close together (Jess holding Oscar next to her face) and Craig takes the family SELFIE we saw him looking at in the Witness Room in Ep1. Over their difficult smiles, PRELAP:

Anna needs to go -- and not to be seen plotting with Mo by Rebecca looks conflicted. Even more so when finally, Craig notices her -- and his smile says: we're so lucky... Then he registers the pillows. And frowns.

REBECCA

I said she can come in with me

Craig eyes the pillows -- realising they're for him.
